- 3. Approval of Agenda

1. SG welcomed the EC and went on to apologies.
2. The agenda was approved.

4. Conflict of interest

SG asked whether any EC member could identify any conflict of interest in the agenda. No conflict of interest were declared

5. Creating the working groups of the EC

The areas and structure of the work of the EC had been discussed at the first two days of meetings in smaller groups on 3 and 4 of May.

Since then SG & LV had prepared a proposal for a new structure of the working groups, based on the conversations during these meetings (See addendum A).

The proposed structure was presented and received support from the EC with a few additions and changes.

The groups are as follows:

- Policies and protocols: SG, BDS, YB, LM, LV and EN as a floating member.
- Communications: SK, TB, SI, JDK
- Networks: CC, JDH, MR, LV
- Assitej Online: EN, ER, PU

6. Working group meetings (session 1)

The whole EC gathered for confirmation of the working groups, including updating members who had to leave early or who were absent at the last meeting.

The EC dispersed to their groups to address the working plan and the action and strategic areas of focus.

7. Working group meetings (session 2)

Working groups dispersed for 45 minutes and continued discussion.

8. Reports from the working groups

Communications Report: (Addendum B)

SK, TB, JDK, SI

Communications working group shared their report

SK talked through the existing work and added in the focus on accessibility. The working group said they would like to find a new designer for the world theatre day and for ASSITEJ branding in the next term, asking EC members to assist with people that might do this work. SG asked the reason for changing the visual design of the world theatre day. The group felt that it would be good to have a new aesthetic feeling together with the election of a new EC. The designer of Segni Festival was proposed alongside the designer of Nashville Theatre that EN works with.

SG - mentioned the working plan action of a three year advance plan for the world day campaign, so that we are not caught at the last moment during this term. The group agreed and asked EC members to start to collect names for world day messages.

LV - explained in more detail the campaign and who has written messages in the past.

JH asked how the EC until now had found the writers of the message for example whether there has been a call to our members.

SG said that there has not been a call in the past, but that the EC has worked to find the writers, looking at what we need to consider strategically. .

The World Performance Week was mentioned as a way to connect to the world day of the other international organizations.

Action: to create the three year plan and timetable and a place for EC members to put their suggestions of world day message contributors.

Action: to create a brief for potential world day message delivery

Networks Working Group report: (Addendum C).

JDH, MR, CC, LV

The Networks Working group shared their report

JDH talked through the group's meeting: Next Generation, Creating "Umbrella Sessions" for National Centres and ASSITEJ Networks, and in comparing the working group focus to the working plan had three questions at the end, as they were unsure whether they would be responsible for all the focus points or not.

1. Where are we with the Performing Arts Capital Project that Yvette was part of and should they be attending to this going forward?

We talked about the world performance week initiative and encouraging reciprocal gestures from our International network colleagues. LV would contact ITI and see where the project was up to.

2. To what extent is it the responsibility of the group to reach out to non arts organizations? Can we cooperate with NGOs like Save the Children to create projects together? The group wanted to connect to the Policies and Protocols working group to develop this goal.

SG - Suggested contact sharing of people who are already creating arts projects with Save the Children.

LV - should make sure there is a clear purpose and plan behind any contact potential link to the manifesto.

3. Sustainability - can the EC create a framework for projects around this focus as it is so large - how does the EC approach this question.?

SG: The policies & protocols working group has been working with this as a goal. A place to start is in the notes of the conversations done at the ASSITEJ Artistic Encounter 2019. The notes will be compiled and shared as a basis for member involvement in this subject. SG also mentioned the focus as a potential dramaturgy frame also.

BDS - mentioned the connection with ITI as a collaborator around EN stressed that the "umbrella of National Centres" would be wonderful to record and make available on assitejonline.org.

Action: create a shared contacts sheet as a resource for all - useful for TYA mapping focus.

Action: Kristiansand notes from Sustainability session to be shared - SG

Assitej Online Working Group report: (Addendum D).

EN, ER, PU,

The working group shared the report

Ernie asked that there is a conversation about the suggested Umbrella sessions for National Centres and the projected coffee sessions planning - so that they don't double up. Coffee Sessions will focus on subjects created by EC from focus areas we have all identified. The assitejonline exploration will begin with a meeting with NAF to understand how we can use the site and structure our online content..

LV asked whether a little down the road a calendar could be established that the whole EC could access to inform themselves and propose ideas that the working group could decide on.

The ASSITEJ Online Logo or assitejonline.org logo. This might also be connected to creating the Umbrellas logo and a small redesign of the normal ASSITEJ logo.

JH proposes that the Networks working group and the online group coordinate their activities.

SG an internal and external calendar would be good.

CC proposed a shared contact list of all relevant contacts.

BB: A proposal for a calendar is a google calendar.

Action: Create a shared year planner schedule for EC to populate

Policies and Protocols working group report (Addendum E)

The group shared the report

SG talked through the major focus points of the working group and the new areas of the working plan that we have added to the existing work.

Action: The contact persons for different areas in the MOU for AAG2022 should be updated (LV & SG will do that). Other actions are marked in the working group report.

9. General reports - Office Bearers.

All reports were circled before the meeting and the EC members were asked to read beforehand so the EC could go directly to the questions to the written reports.

9.1 President Report (Addendum F)

SHK: Asked about the situation of ASSITEJ Singapore. SG explained the situation including that the centre resigned but also paid the membership fee and voted at the congress.

CC: Address how the Network group can contribute to share better the information about the activities that EC members and others make (for example the ones that are mentioned in the Secretary General Report and President report).

ASSITEJ Italy asked Cristina about the Workshop in ASSITEJ Zambia and wished that there had been better communication between ASSITEJ and the national centre. CC asked whether a protocol for the role and responsibilities of EC members in relation to communication could be established. Communication between ASSITEJ and National Centres/Networks and ASSITEJ and the wider public including social media. It was decided that the policies & protocols working group will work with this.

BBS: also expressed a wish for a policy for this area.

9.2 Secretary General (Addendum G)

LV - asked for questions from the EC

JDH - commented on the enthusiastic and positive email from Korea. LV this is an example of the kind of response people have made to the congress.

YB - commented in the funding from the Danish government around co funding LV - had hoped for more

JDH - do you need help with the Creative Europe Network application Cooperation project, where are we up to?

LV - will call out for help when the time comes.

CC- meeting with Barbara Gessler May 26. It was discussed who could be present together with LV and SG.

JDK: proposed that IIAN took on the job to create a sign language name for ASSITEJ. The EC was very happy to accept this offer.

Action: SG, SHK and LV will work on this topic and set up a meeting with ASSITEJ Singapore.

Action: create a sign language name for ASSITEJ

9.3 Treasurer Report (Addendum H)

Treasurer report shared on google drive after the meeting.

All the legal requirements have been met to take on the treasurer role.

EN is looking for Bookkeeping software so that we can invoice, work with payment and collect funds more easily

YB - supported this action and asked are you looking for open source system

EBN - looking for a low cost system that can do many functions.

VOTE: The reports of the President, Secretary General and treasurer were unanimously accepted.

10. Reflecting on the 20th ASSITEJ World Congress.

SG asked the question : What does the Congress tell us about the next three years? What did you see?

YB: access, sustainability, advocacy and reinvesting in the performing arts.

EN: accessibility, sustainability and a beautiful sense of connectivity - a common platform for all. The participation and global connection was incredible and could be brought forward to the dramaturgy.

TB: What is our superpower: The power is our community. "Power" could be used in the dramaturgy.

JH: Coexistence, collaboration and community. Inclusivity, belonging and having these voices heard.

JDK: access: digital, language, financial, connection (also on a national level), a want for blended formats. The "Journey" might be an interesting metaphor as we trace the literal journey to Cuba. We are all at different points of our journey.

SHK: We need action. So action/ moving forward could be interesting to have in the dramaturgy.

BDS: The mission of ASSITEJ is access to information and to spread the word. The impact because it gave access to people who will never travel is central. "All voices onboard". We need action, we need movement. We don't have time to wait anymore. What are we going to do with the voices?

CC: The topic of connection/connectivity. The new world. After the pandemic is a new beginning. "Strategy of collaboration and connection."

PU: participation: How do we include everyone even if we move to a physical festival. How do we carry everybody along also in the physical meetings? No barriers to involvement.

LV: Congress was successful, demonstrated the work to be done - just having digital doesn't mean everyone can be connected creating content people can relate to - diversity in content and reach. Long term work to make sure the shape of what we do comes from many places.

SG: The congress made her feel both excited about the people who could be there but also awareness of the people that we did not reach. Partly because of the timeline in making the congress possible that did not give time to develop open pathways and ease of access. SG has been thinking about the word "Sustain". About environment, audiences, artists survival.

11. Dramaturgy of ASSITEJ 2021-2024

The EC went through a process of exploration and brainstorming in smaller groups, then regrouped to share some of the thinking.

Discussed were the existing Artistic Gatherings and Congress and the themes explored by each, the role of the dramaturgy and how it helps shape our connection with members.

Bibu - No one left behind - Sustainability

Serbia - New generations

Cuba - voice of the new world

VL shared the past dramaturgies and opened discussion on the purpose of the exercise. eg; 2012 - 14 -facing society, facing the artist, facing the audience

There was an outside suggestion from Diana working from her theme in Serbia 2023. Diana also working with No one left behind - suggestion of Voices as a holding theme - VOICES of otherness (Indigenous) VOICES of the new generation (professionals and audiences) VOICES of the new world (South global)
The EC received Diana's input with thanks.

All the ideas from the smaller sessions were shared through a google doc with another working group created to fine tune the ideas into the dramaturgy for the next three years.

This working group is : JDK, ER, PU, JDH, LM, TB, SG & LV.

Action: Google doc will be shared on the Drive - SG

12. AAG2022: Questions to Bibu/ASSITEJ Sweden

Niklas Malmcrona (ASSITEJ Sweden), Niklas Borefors (CEO of Bibu) and Linnea Lidberg (Intern attended on behalf of Bibu).

Before the meeting Bibu created a presentation about Bibu that all members of the EC had seen before the meeting.

Niklas Malcrona:

The festival is twofold: Performances from Sweden (premiered in the last two years) selected by a Swedish Jury with a general selection criteria.

The international selection will be of indigenous performances. Based on a feeling that it is often the same performances that are presented in the international festivals. And also with a wish to connect the performance programme to the theme of leaving no one behind. And because there are Indigenous people in Sweden - the Sami. So it was a way to recognise that in Sweden there are indigenous people.

Then a research started: how many performances exist created by indigenous people in different parts of the world. Bibu reached out to key people and found out that there are performances but they are not very often seen. It is a big work to reach the practitioners and means we must go outside our usual circles.

There have so far only been received around 25 applications but we would very much like to see more.

We are getting into new fields and we might be able to create a catalogue for performances created by Indigenous peoples and an expansion of what this means to theatre and ideas of performance.

The jury for the international performances is international, created with people from Indigenous communities and arts practice.

MR: The theme is very interesting for the performances. I ask you to leave no one behind including the middle east and central Asia. Many people in these areas don't speak english and are not in good contact with the international community.

SG: This inquiry might be outside the frame of the performance criteria.

NM: There is not one definition of indigenous peoples (this is discussed in the selection committee). We do realise that we are excluding a lot of performances and many people might feel upset about this. But this is not for all ASSITEJ festivals, it is only for this festival.

JDK: What about representation of disabled artists? How is the festival catering for disabled artists and audiences?

NB: A part of the festival will be dedicated to disabled artists and how to make the performing arts accessible. There will be a part of the festival that will be dedicated to inclusive performances. This will not be in the call out because it is already an existing track in the work of Bibu.

Bibu will also work with accessibility in venues and is working with an external company to make the festival accessible for deaf and hearing impaired.

Where is disability placed in the call out for delegates and professional programme submissions?

There will be an access committee created to address these questions.

PU: How do you intend to select performances from Africa?

NM: one of the members from the selection committee is from South Africa and there are already submissions from African countries.

PU We would like to know the kind of performances you would like (from Africa).

NM: We will bring this question with us.

BB: There are some very interesting films done by indigenous artist. Are you open to also show films?

NM: We have not discussed films but we have discussed different ways of showing performances if they are not allowed to travel. We will have to discuss the idea about films.

Niklas Borefors: Recorded performances is not a problem but showing a movie created by the cinema raises many questions.

LV: Maybe films could be considered as a contribution to the conversations in the professional exchange programme.

NM: what we are missing is applications from Australia, South America and North America.

Action: SG will work on this and EN will reach out to TYA-USA and other key persons.

SHK: Indigenous is a difficult term in an Asian context.

NM: there will be arranged seminars during the gathering to discuss the different definitions.

PU: It is important to select a performance from Africa of groups that are members of the national centres.

LV: Maybe we can make sure that performances of groups that are not members will become members rather than limiting the selection to the groups that are already members. This can be a way of increasing our reach and keep the organization open.

MR: Do you have any sources about what indigenous means to help me understand what indigenous could mean in Central Asia and the middle east.

NM: will share a link. <https://en.unesco.org/indigenous-peoples>

SG: Where are you standing with the budget?

Niklas Borefors:  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the gathering funding is already granted. The grants that apply to Bibu more generally are given in October/November but these grants are usually given to the festival. We have a budget that is in balance and we are constantly working with it. A hybrid festival might create additional costs and that is something that will be worked on. We will have a hybrid festival and Bibu will come back to the EC with a plan of what Bibu can afford in terms of adding a digital dimension to the festival.

SG: Once the EC found out more about what assitejonline.org we can see what we can offer.

Magazine:

SG: The idea is from September to start rolling out the first articles.

SHK: How do the Swedish side feel about the online magazine that was created in 2021? and a second question is how we can work with making the magazine accessible.

Niklas Borefors is very positive towards the 2021 magazine.

If the EC agrees to the idea of starting releasing articles in September/October this means we need to start the work more or less now.

The timeline for the magazine work will change.

SHK: understands the idea and the working group has to think about that. The workload is similar to the regular magazine but the workflow is different. The dramaturgy also needs to be decided on.

SHK: Why do we launch early?

Niklas Borefors: This is a marketing approach, using articles to gather interest in the festival early. If we do an online magazine how will it be different: it is to make it available for a much longer time.

LV: We might need to change the title to the AAG2022 magazine rather than the annual 2022 magazine.

Action: LV will send around the general timeline for the production of the Bibu including the MOU.

Access committee will consist of: SG, JDK, and others including a person from Sweden with lived experience of disability.

A criteria for disability is difficult. It is rather people who identify as disabled.

There should be a meeting soon. SG will take the lead on setting up the meeting.

Action: to have a pre meeting with JDK to talk through our approach.

Sustainability Committee. It would be good to have a joint committee to discuss the theme more broadly. The purpose and aims of the committee has to be defined by the committee. One aim is to get practical advice and actions.

SG One of the long term purposes of our involvement is to create a framework for sustainability in ASSITEJ globally.

JH: What is the purpose of the committee? Is it to be practical for the festival or to inform the professional exchange programme?

NM: It is primarily to make sure that AAG2022 is making the right actions as a festival.

Members: JH, ER & LV and potentially 1-2 young persons (from Friday from Future or from the youth delegates at AAG2019).

JH will also be writing a PHD about the process so she will have to find a way to be both external and internal to the process.

ER finds the theme interesting especially because she will be involved in arranging the AAG2025.

Next Generation:

JH: what will be the work of NG in relation to placemaking?

Niclas Malmcrona: To try to create art work together with the local community but will also be partly up to the participants.

<https://www.pps.org/article/what-is-placemaking>

YB and JDK sent in questions to AAG Bibu and ASSITEJ Sweden previous to the meeting.

13. Counselor -

Lv introduced the concept of Counselor as opposed to a co-opted member of the Executive Committee - counselor has no voting rights and is often used to fill a gap that is seen in the EC.

Bebe may have an opinion on the need for South American representation considering we are heading to Cuba and we have only her as the champion for the region. The economic dimension also needs to be taken into consideration

SK - strongly agreed with South American counselor

BDS - The presence on the EC in the past has mostly been Argentina. Bebe is a representative of ASSITEJ Chile but lives in Germany. There is no person in Latin American who lives and is involved in the region. Strongly support another Latin American member.

Paulo Merisio was discussed. He could bring the Latin American connection and work and he also has the connection to the area of research. Brazil has been increasingly involved and active and it would be good to include them in this way.

SG: We should also in addition to the counsellor, have an advisory group of all Latin Americans to assist us towards Cuba.

VOTE: The EC unanimously decided to invite Paulo Merisio as a counselor member of the EC.

Financial considerations in relation to counselors are about travel and accommodations. Usually ASSITEJ covers these costs for the counsellors. LV and SG will talk with Paulo Merisio and ASSITEJ Brazil about the possibilities of sharing the costs to reduce the economic burden on the budget of ASSITEJ. As long as LV doesn't bring an assistant with him to the EC-meetings the accommodation and meals of Paulo Merisio can be covered by the meeting host (that normally pays for the stay of 16 persons).

14. Memberships and Member requests

14.1 Membership application from ASSITEJ Burkina

VOTE: The application was accepted unanimously (Julia fell out due to computer issues during the vote).

ER: ASSITEJ Burkina is wanting to establish a new festival and hope that ASSITEJ can support that.

14.2 Digitalization of regional workshop (Brazil, Argentina, Cuba)

These three centres received a grant for regional workshops and wish to make it digital due to pandemic. LV suggested officers approve this once we get more information.

New Agenda items: Letter of Support Senegal

YB read and screenshared an email from Patricia Domis and the Dajarma Arts and Culture Centre in Senegal (See addendum I). YB presented the backstory to the appeal from Patricia Domis and the Dajarma Arts and Culture Centre in Senegal. LV and SG talked through the protocol necessary to allow letters of support. ER spoke of the support of ASSITEJ France and Francois Fogel's knowledge of the artist. The appeal is also supported by several companies in Belgium. SG to write a letter and LV to chase up one more referee. SG will write a letter in preparation for translation by YB. More information and voting will be done by email.

15. Coming meetings - dates for 2021:

LV and SG will create a schedule for the EC and working groups will then make their own times to do extra work or arrange individual tasks.

We are aiming for End of July, September, and November in 2021. February in 2022 and then the May meeting at Bibu 2022.

Action: LV to send dates for EC meetings for 2021.

16. Any other business

The writers of the newsletter openers were decided.

JDK asked whether each writer could make a recording to make the openers more accessible. This was agreed on.

Subject: [ASSITEJ KOREA] Huge greetings from ASSITEJ KOREA!

To: Louis Valente(Secretary General) <sg@assitej-international.org>

Dear Louis,

Greetings from Korea!

Hope everything is going well! The World Congress and MIRAI Festival has only two days to go.

We feel like it was just yesterday that we were excited to participate in the online general assembly and all the international performances.

It feels surreal that so many ASSITEJ members and delegates could meet and communicate with each other at one place on ZOOM.

ASSITEJ Korea would like to appreciate and feel thankful that audiences and TYA professionals in South Korea can watch and enjoy the festivals during this period.

As mentioned before, ASSITEJ Korea has purchased 51 tickets. Yet, there were more demands for the festival tickets.

So we bought more group tickets and eventually a total of 102 tickets were all sold out!

We believe that it could be possible because the lineup and festival itself were so good.

Also, it was great to feel that how many people were waiting for the theatres and festivals.

Thanks for all the effort from ASSITEJ International Team and the people who contributed to this festival organisation.

Will enjoy the rest of the days of the festival and hope to see everyone soon in person.

Kind Regards,

ASSITEJ KOREA

Objet : Senegalese artist and art practionner for children needs support

Dear Sue, Louis, Pamela, Emilie and Lalu,

I received the attached SOS today. It was sent in French, I kept the French, and “deepled” it in English.

Patricia Gomis is a Senegalese artist based 50 kms south of Dakar. My company has collaborated with her several times since the past 17 years.

Patricia presented a coproduction we created with her Sir, Me, Sir (creation 2011) at the 19th Congress in Cape Town. She toured this show in almost 15 FR and EN speaking countries all accross Africa.

She has built with her husband, and many other Senegalese associations, by the port of Ndayane, a multi-artistic, educationnal, environment friendly Cultural center. This project is now threatened by the construction of a huge container port in-situ. No more cultural, educationnal activities for the children and the many young artists that evolve around this place.

I've known Patricia for almost 15 years, I must say I have rarely encountered such a dynamic and strong person in my life. But now she is desperately looking for support.

I am not sure any action will change the course of the events, but at least we would have done something. My company will write a letter of support. Djarama (the name of the association) is not part of any Assitej center. However I think this unique project in Senegal that has helped so many artists and children out, is unfortunately going to disappear, and it certainly deserves our attention as a global and equity-based association.

I know Sue you have so many things to do. I could write a short letter in French, I would "deepl" in English so that you get the meaning, and sign the French version? Any other ideas?

Here is a 10 minutes presentation made in 2016 about the association, in French, but I guess you'll get it.

Thanks
Yannick
