Scènes d'enfance - ASSITEJ France

Name of Candidate:

François Fogel

Presentation of candidate:

François Fogel has been a professional photographer, specialised in performing arts, then the webmaster of the first French portail dedicated to theatre for young audiences. From 2012 on, he contributed to the establishment of a renewed French national center of ASSITEJ, where he served as secretary.

He was elected at the Executive Committee of ASSITEJ at the Congress of Warsaw, in 2014. With his colleagues of the Promotion workgroup, he participated in the project of the new website and newsletter of ASSITEJ, and in all the communication aspects of the association.

In the last period, he contributed to the new program of regional workshops of ASSITEJ, by coordinating "Shaping stories / Construire des histoires", a playwriting laboratory for all the French - speaking TYA professionals in Africa.

Since the merging of the French international TYA association (ASSITEJ France) with the national one (Scènes d'enfances et d'ailleurs), in 2015, he is employed as manager of international and communication businesses of the new organisation, Scènes d'enfance - ASSITEJ France.
