

中国儿童戏剧研究会 国际儿童青少年戏剧协会中国中心

CHINA CHILDREN'S DRAMA SOCIETY
ASSITEJ CHINA CENTRE

---

Elected by the presidium meeting of the ASSITEJ China Centre, Feng Li, the president of China National Theatre for Children, now officially takes the role of the president of the ASSITEJ China Centre.

Yin Xiaodong, the former president of China National Theatre for Children, was transferred to other institution and no longer served as the president of the ASSITEJ China Centre.

After working together for years, ASSITEJ China Centre and ASSITEJ International have achieved remarkable results. ASSITEJ China will constantly enhance communication and cooperation with ASSITEJ International as well as the Centres around the world, and promote the development of theatre for young audiences worldwide.

Resume of Feng Li

Feng Li, writer as well as playwright, graduated from the Department of Drama Literature at the Central Academy of Drama (China). She is also a visiting professor and a supervisor of postgraduate students in the Central Academy of Drama.

Her main play-writing works include: Children's Theatre, modern dramas, musicals, nearly 300 episodes of TV series, and full-length novels and other literary works.

As the leading figure with influential importance in the field of drama in China, She has won more than 20 domestic and international professional awards including Cao Yu Theatre Award for writing of China Theatre Awards.

